

We had some great submissions but unfortunately we only could choose one winner for each category. Before I reveal them though I'd like to thank everyone for entering the competition, it didn't go as well as I thought it would but what was entered were very high quality submissions. So without further ado the winners are below.

BEST MOD -

I had to go with the Impossible Mod Force's submission Mission: Impossible - New Dawn.

Everything about the mod was very highly polished and although I did find a couple of bugs and spelling mistakes they were quickly overshadowed but the tremendous effort that was put in the game. Everything felt like I was playing a real professional game release.

Congratulations to everyone in the Impossible Mod Force for a great effort! You have won a US$50 Amazon.com Voucher, Max Payne 2 Jacket, Rockstar Poster and Stickerpack and signed copies of both Lift and Late Goodbye singles by Poets of the Fall.

BEST MACHINIMA MOVIE -

Only the Strong Survive was released quite awhile ago and was one of the first entries submitted into the competition. When I first saw it I was in complete awe, Riot Films have done an amazing job in telling the story of two assassins Andy and Brown.

Not much else can be said except to watch it and you can see how this won 😊

Congratulations to Jason Choi and his team at Riot Films. You have won a Max Payne 2 Jacket and a Rockstar Poster and Stickerpack!

BEST DEAD MAN WALKING LEVEL/PACK -

Max Payne's Chronicles was released around 3 months ago and apart from being an amazing mod it also comes packaged with lots of new Bonus modes. These bonus modes take the Dead Man Walking style gameplay and just mix it all up.

Theres some great modes included in, one of which is a Co-op mode. I have to say this mode makes this mod win in this category automaticly 😊 It's insanely fun and well thought out and for those looking for a multiplayer type of experience in Max Payne then try this out.

Well done Corwin, you have done an amazing job with taking the DMW concept and revitalizing it with some great ideas. You have won a Max Payne 2 Jacket and a Rockstar Poster and Stickerpack!
